Viewpoint – The Plot

The running commentary and interview shots express the story of a lone traveller who encountered dangers in unknown areas. A suspicious figure follows a photographer's journey throughout their day in order to execute a robbery of their bag after seeing them place an engagement ring inside it. The interviewer then asks to see all of the photos taken by the photographer that day. Whilst searching we hear the clicks of a camera as the photos flick through. One photo reveals a hooded figure lurking behind. We then see a picture from earlier in the day with a jogger with the same distinct coat tied around his waist.
